Milk Truck May Have Struck Boy

Lester Greer, 47, Reports Unusual Incident Early Wednesday Morning

Lester Greer, aged 47, 1712 South Moniteau avenue, driver of a Tullis-Hall milk truck, stated to Marion Hall, his employer, and Chief of Police Edgar Neighbors, Wednesday night, that he may have been driver of the vehicle that caused the death of Donald Kettle. "I don't know that I am," he said, "because I didn't see anything on the street, but from all circumstances, it must have been my truck involved in the accident.

Two trucks left the Tullis-Hall plant, on East Fifth street, about 5:00 o'clock Wednesday morning. They are one and one-half ton trucks. Driving the first was Virgil Reed and riding with him was "Junior" Billingsly. Greer's truck was the second one, perhaps a half a block, or a little more behind the other one. Both went west on Third street and turned north on Ohio avenue, heading for Marshall.

"Milk Bottles All Right"

Greer stated that when he turned the corner at Third street and Ohio avenue he thought he heard a noise, and believed some of the milk bottles had turned over. He got out of the truck, he stated, went to the side, looked in, and ascertained all milk bottles were all right.

The trucks stopped at the intersection of highways 65 and 40 and the drivers went into a cafe for coffee.

Greer asked the other two if they had seen a box or anything in the street at Third and Ohio, and he told of the incident. The two said they had seen nothing.

While in Marshall Greer said, he heard a Sedalia boy had been killed, and he thought of his incident, but was told the accident had occurred between Fourth and Fifth streets, so did not believe his truck was involved.

Check During Day

In the meantime in Sedalia, Chief Neighbors and his officers were checking all trucks that had left the city during the early morning hours, and asked proprietors of business houses to check with the drivers when they came in.

Mr. Hall did that when his drivers came in and was told of the incident that had occurred to Greer. He called Chief Neighbors and reported to him what had happened. Neighbors sent out to Greer's home and he went to police headquarters where he told the story.

A small dent on the left front of the truck, Greer said, had been there for some time.

Greer is married and has two sons. He has driven for Tullis-Hall for over five years.

Inquest Friday Morning

Greer was held overnight for further inquiry and shortly afternoon today he was released from the county jail. No charges have been filed in the case pending a coroner's inquest to be held at 10 o'clock Friday morning, at the Ewing funeral home.

The inquest hearing was requested and Dr. C. Gordon Stauffacher, coroner, set the time.

In the meantime police have been checking persons who had made remarks regarding the accident and who they thought may have been a witness. However, those questioned apparently were not in the vicinity of the accident at the time it was said to have occurred, about 5:00 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Body in Street

The body of Donald Kettle was found about 5:05 o'clock Tuesday morning in the middle of Ohio street, just north of Third street, by J. O. "Smoky" Caldwell, 407 North Prospect avenue, a driver for the Atlas Cab Co., while taking a passenger to the Missouri Pacific railroad station. The boy was astraddle of his demolished bicycle and apparently had been instantly killed.

Ozark Theatre of Eldon Burned Today

ELDON, Mo., Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Ozark theatre on Eldon's main street was destroyed by fire today after an explosion in the back of the building. The highway patrol said the source of the blast was unknown.

The theater was the only permanent one here. It was owned by Tom Edwards of Farmington and managed by Dill Smith of Eldon.

No one was in the building. No estimate of the loss was made.

He Twisted Her Toes

CINCINNATI, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Mrs. Dorothy Zenni, 33, was granted a divorce today, after she told Judge George E. Kearns her husband twisted her toes until she screamed. Her husband was Ralph C. Zenni, 34.

Ice Jams Threaten Floods in Midwest

A fireman directs a high pressure stream of water from a fire truck in an attempt to break an ice jam under Cow Creek bridge at Hutchinson, Kans. The jam, believed to extend down to the creek bed, is threatening the city with its worst mid-winter flood in history. Thaws, following the severe winter conditions over the great plains states, have caused flood threats to many other towns and cities over the midwest. (NEA TELEPHOTO)

Left Bound and Gagged, MU Student Says

Found Asleep in Filling Station Near Boonville

BOONVILLE, Mo., Feb. 17—(AP)—A 17-year-old University of Missouri freshman, found asleep in a filling station west of Boonville early today, told Cooper county officials how his fraternity brothers left him gagged, bound and cold "in the woods" eight miles southwest of Boonville during the night. He is Robert Stephen Leaf of New York City, a college of arts and Science student.

Leaf was fined $5 and costs—a total of $13.50 — in magistrate's court this morning for destruction of property, and said he would pay a dollar for the filling station window he broke to get in out of the cold.

He had taken refuge there after walking five miles toward Boonville, unable all the way to hitch a ride. Before going to sleep he had written a note promising to pay for whatever damage he had done.

Found Him Asleep

A farmer living near the filling station had noticed the broken window and telephoned the highway patrol. Trooper J. E. Seeley found Leaf asleep, with a rope around his neck, a sandal on one foot and a rubber on the other.

Leaf told officers how he had worked his way out of the ropes which bound his hands behind his back and then removed the gag from his mouth. He made his way first to a country road, then to highway 5, and north to highway 40, where he decided to take refuge in the filling station.

He had tried to get help at farm houses along the way, he said, but —

Too Many Dogs

"Every farmer had a dog, and it seemed like every dog was barking."

When he was found by the patrolman, Leaf was taken to the Cooper county jail here. He telephoned fraternity brothers in Columbia for money to pay his fine, and was released before noon.

Leaf told officers he was studying in his room at the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity house in Columbia last night when he decided to go downstairs. When he reached the lower floor, he said, fraternity members seized him, bound and gagged him and blindfolded him and loaded him into the car. It was south of Boonville that they left him alone in the cold.

Denies Initiation

A telephone call to the fraternity house in Columbia this morning brought a statement from a youth who identified himself as "an officer of the fraternity," that Leaf was one of several involved in an affair last night, and that all of the others had been accounted for. Shortly after noon today, Joseph Milligan of Willow Grove, Pa., president of the fraternity, said that "positively there was no initiation taking place in the Alpha Epsilon Pi fraternity." He said he did not

Four Children Sue Parents

CHICAGO, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The Joseph Krasons were sued yesterday by their four children, who claimed they turned over earnings of $30,980 in return for room, board, clothing and small allowances.

The children, all now married, asked an accounting of the money they said they gave their parents during periods ranging from three to seven years.

The superior court suit contended the parents, now separated, had agreed to take out the money for board and invest the remainder, to be returned on request.

But, the suit said, the Krasons cashed some of the children's government savings bonds and converted the cash to their own use. The suit asked for an accounting, an injunction to restrains the parents from disposing of the savings and a court order to repay the funds.

The four children and the salary they claimed they gave their parents are Ted, a mechanic, $13,500; Mrs. Evelyn Goetz, $10,050; Mrs. Alice Owak, $3,550, and Mrs. Josephine Filipiak, $2,880. The three daughters formerly were employed as office workers.

Nominated For Commissioner Of Education

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Earl James McGrath of New York was nominated by President Truman today to be U. S. commissioner of education. He would succeed John W. Studebaker.

Studebaker's resignation last summer precipitated a row in the federal security agency over administrative policies.

Studebaker contended that Federal Security Administrator Oscar Ewing and his associates were trying to hinder the "zeal for democracy" program which he was pushing in the nation's schools.

Ewing told a news conference that Studebaker's charges were without basis, that he had found Studebaker to be an unsatisfactory commissioner and that he had been planning to discharge him.

The Studebaker charges were aired at a senate subcommittee hearing, but no action resulted. Studebaker now is chairman of the Editorial Board of Scholastic Magazines, Inc., New York City.

McGrath is professor of education at the University of Chicago.

During the last war he had the rank of Lieutenant Commander in the Navy as officer in charge of the educational services section, bureau of naval personnel.

From 1945 to 1948 he was dean of the College of Liberal Arts, University of Iowa.

Cost One Cent More

OTTAWA, Feb. 17.—(AP)—They were slicing things fine when they figured out the cost of building destroyers in Canada.

H.M.C.S. Athabaskan, according to a return tabled in the house of commons today, cost $7,647,550,01.

That one cent at the end represented the ship's advance in cost over a sister ship, Cayuga.

Air Academy Bills Put Up To Congress

Rep. Christopher And Senator Kem For Sedalia Field

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—Bills calling for establishment of a proposed U. S. Air Academy at Enid, Okla., and at Strother Air Field between Arkansas City and Winfield, Kas., were introduced Wednesday.

Rep. George Howard Wilson (D-Okla) introduced the legislation to locate the academy at Enid while Rep. Herbert Meyer (R-Kas) submitted the Strother Field bill.

Earlier in the week Rep. Rees (R-Kas) introduced a measure to establish the school at Wichita, Kas., while Rep Christopher (D-Mo) and Senator Kem (R-Mo) have sent in bills to have it at Sedalia, Mo.

Rep. Kilday (D-Tex) introduced a bill to put the academy at Randolph Field, Tex.

Wilson said he introduced the Enid bill after Mayor Frank Carter of that city called a meeting of businessmen and civic leaders recently and the crowd decided to make an "all-out effort" to get the academy.

He told a reporter he had been assured by Secretary Symington that the air force had not made any commitments for location of the proposed school.

"The field appears to be open," Wilson said.

Business and civic leaders of Enid informed Wilson they are urging Senators Elmer Thomas and Kerr, Oklahoma Democrats, to get behind their proposal.

Ask Over 5 Million For White House

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—President Truman today asked Congress for $5,400,000 to renovate and modernize the White House.

While it would be cheaper to raze the present building and rebuild completely, he said in a letter to the Senate, this would mean the destruction of a building "of tremendous historical significance in the growth of the nation."

Police Cars Will Get Tickets Too

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The police department has opened a drive against certain parking violators.

The violators are members of the police department.

Citizens have been complaining that when they follow the parking examples set by police cars they get tickets, Inspector Arthur I. Miller said.

From now on, he said, the police cars will get tickets too.

Thought For Today

There is nothing so strong or safe in an emergency of life as the simple truth.—Dickens

80-Year-Old Visitor in the City Confined With The Mumps

When a man has successfully dodged the mumps for 80 years you would think he would be able to settle back without fear and watch other people have them as he had always done. But this year's epidemic of the mumps cares little about age. It has swooped down upon the little youngsters too little to go to school. It has gone through almost entire school rooms. It has pounced upon men and women who have been working for years and kept them home from work. Some of them who still insist that they had mumps in their childhood and this is a second attack. Now they have swelled the jaws of a man eighty years old. The man is Joe Wimer of LaMonte, who is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs Harry Wahrenbrock, 650 East Tenth street. Mr. Wimer probably got them from Larry Wahrenbrock, little son of the Wahrenbrock family, who got over them, but Mr. Wimer is recovering from them just as well as Larry, or any other youngster. It takes more than the mumps to get Mr. Wimer down, he states.

Post Offices Should Not Be in Politics

Is Recommendation To Congress by Hoover Commission

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—The Hoover commission said today the post office department should be taken out of politics.

The postmaster general, it said, should not be allowed to head a national political committee and the postmasters throughout the counntry should be career men chosen from within the postal service and nont subject to confirmation by the senate.

These were the highlights of a report to Congrness by the 12-member commission Congress created last year to report on organization of the executive branch of the government. Former President Herbert Hooves is chairman.

The report on the post office department was the fourth of more than 15 due to reach Congress by March 13.

Eight Things Wrong

These eight things were listed by the commission under the heading of What is wrong with the post office?"

A. The administrative structure is obsolete and overcentralized.

B. A maze of outmoded laws, regulations and traditions freezes progress and stifles proper administration.

C. The post office lacks the freedom and flexibility essential to good business operation."

D. Rates have not kept pace with wages and other costs, and ratemaking machinery is inadequate.

E. The service is used to hide subsidies.

F. Political appointments of first, second and third class post masters and certain other officials produces inefficiency "and militates against the incentives of promotion."

G. Methods of budgeting, accounting and appropriation are unsuited to a business of the size and character of the post service.

H. Recurring annual operating deficits have been caused by circumstances "mostly beyond the control" of the department "and can be remedied only by strong and courageous action."

Remedies Offered

The commission offered these remedies to correct the faults it found:

The postmaster general should continue as a cabinet member appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate, but should not be an official of a political party. (The present postmaster general, Jesse M. Donaldson, is a career postal official and is not head of a political party. Some of his predecessors have been the chairmen of the Democratic and Republican national committees.)

An experienced executive, preferably chosen from the service, should be appointed by the president and confirmed by the senate as director of posts. He would be the operating head of the post office. The postmaster general would determine departmental and public policies.

Should be Decentralized

The postal service should be decentralized into 15 regions under regional directors and district superintendents.

Confirmation of postmasters by the senate should be abolished, and the post office should be taken out of politics.'" An estimated 2,000 postal employes "are in fact politically appointed," and "a deleterious effect has been to create a political barrier to promotion within the service and thus deprive it of a great incentive to good work." The commission suggested that postmasters be selected, as far as possible, from the local community and in consultation with local leaders. They would be subject to merit standards set by the post office and approved by the civil service commission.

Want Money For Table Rock Dam

BRANSON, Mo., Feb. 17.—(AP)—An appropriation for construction of Table Rock dam in Taney county will be urged in Washington next month by a committee from the White River Flood Control association.

The dam will cost $76,000,000, army engineers yesterday told an association meeting attended here by 200 persons.

First proposed 25 years ago, the dam would be 260 feet high, 6,000 feet long as the crest, and would create a reservoir extending as far north as Galena. The normal reservoir would cover 45,000 acres, with 50,000 acres at flood level.

Prof. L. E. Meador of Springfieldo was elected chairman of the Association's board of directors, and these new directors were named: J. C. Alexander, the Rev. J. E. Chase and Ben Parnell of Branson; Rex Allaman of Forsyth, and Tom W. McFarland and A. T. Parrish of Springfield.

Rock Island Brakeman Killed

KANSAS CITY, Kas., Feb. 17.—(AP)—William H. Fry, 28, Trenton, Mo., brakeman for the Rock Island railroad, was killed today in the railroad yards here while a freight train was being made up.

Fry was standing behind a Diesel engine and was making connections with a boxcar. A long train of boxcars was being coupled to the end of the train. Fry was knocked off balance, fell under the wheels of the slowly moving car and was crushed.

Offer Bill to Extend Missouri Teachers Retirement Fund

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—A bill to extend Missouri's teacher retirement program to all full time educational employes was offered at a skeleton session of the House today.

Of the 14 representatives who signed the bill, one said he didn't understand all the changes the measure would make but he believed it was drawn up by the Missouri Teachers' Association.

It would permit certified teachers to base their four per cent contributions on as much as $3,000 of their annual pay. The present maximum on which they may contribute each year is $1,800. Thus the new measure would permit teachers to contribute more and boards of education would have to match the higher amount.

But it appeared the most controversial provision in the new bill would be to extend benefits to full time janitors, secretaries and bus drivers of public schools and the staff of the retirement system itself.

House members fought bitterly over such a provision in the original law in 1945. They finally stripped all but certified teachers from the benefits of the law.

Geo. L. Donohue, secretary of the system's board of trustees, said there now are about 450 retired teachers in issouri receiving benefits. Conntributiosn from teachers ad employers now average about $2,500,000 a year, he added.

The bill was introduced at a skeleton session of the House.

Millions to Storm Areas

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—(AP)—The house agriculture committee unanimously approved today $44,000,000 in loan funds for mafrems ers in the bllzzard-battered areas of the west and southwest.

Chairman Cooley (D-NC) announced he will ask immediate passage by the house.

Foremen Want To Bargain Collectively

Association Asks Congress to Take Action in Matter

By Marvin L. Arrowsmith

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—The Foreman's Association of America today asked Congress to require employers to bargain collectively with foremen.

Carl Brown, the assocaition president, made the appeal in a statement prepared for the senate labor committee.

The committee late yesterday was asked by the Ford Motor Co. to keep on the books a Taft-Hartley law provision which, while not barring the formation of foremen's unions, denies to such groups the collective bargaining rights granted to other unions.

William T. Gossett, vice president and general counsel of the Ford company, told the committee "we know from actual experience" with the foremen's association "that unionization of supervisors is unworkable."

Brown asked that the whole Taft-Hartley law be repealed and that the old Wagner act be substituted for it. Under that act, the National Labor Relations Board finally held that employers were required to bargain collectively with foremen's unions.

Considering Bill

The labor committee is considering an administration bill which would scrap the T-H law and replace it with a modified Wagner act. It would again grant organized foremen the same bargaining rights which unions of rank-and-file workers have.

Brown told the committee that under the Taft-Hartley law "many employers are imposing the same unsatisfactory conditions of employment upon foremen as were imposed on other groups of employes" prior to enactment of the original Wagner act in 1935.

Gossett, on the other hand, said that a return to the old setup which required recognition of foremen would cut production efficiency and lead to higher costs and prices.

Hope to Speed Hearing

Gossett said that in the days when Ford dealt with the foreman's association the union "relentlessly continued its efforts to drive a wedge between our foremen and other members of our management team."

In an effort to speed up the hearings and meet a February 23 deadline Republican committee members have agreed to limit their cross-examination of witnesses from 15 to 30 minutes, depending on the witness. The GOP members took the initiative on that yesterday after the timetable bogged down again.

Force-Feeding Measures Not Needed

Business Slow-up Just a 'Burp' Says Economist

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—A Brookings Institution economist told Congress today that the business hesitation is just an economic "burp," not a belly ache. He said it probably does not call for force-feeding measures by the government.

A. D. H. Kaplan testified before the joint economic committee, now weighing President Truman's broad economic control program, that "desperate" federal measures may be more harmful than helpful. The Brookings Institution is a privately financed research organization.

Turning to the nursery for his business analogy, Kaplan observed:

"I think the baby has been taking the bottle very fast since the war. You can't keep crowding milk into a baby. There is a time for letting the baby burp."

When a committee member suggested it is hard to tell whether the price sag is a burp of a "chronic hiccup," Kaplan said the government itself frightened business into the 1938 recession by "desperate" measures to preserve the 1937 prosperity.

Good Prediction

"The government made a good prediction that prosperity couldn't last," Kaplan said. "So it turned loose all its machinery and made the prediction come true.

"We created relief programs, rural rehabilitation, student relief, the civilian conservation corps, the Civil Works Administration, the Public Work Administration and the self-liquidating RFC.

"Perhaps largely as a result of such publicity, production went down 38 per cent in the twelve months after the 1937 peak. I cannot agree that merely piling up government machinery is going to preserve prosperity.

"What we need right now is a building up of confidence in the future. That may call more for a policy of drifting than of action at the present time."

The economist suggested that a readjustment is in order in some sections of the economy.

Postal Sub-station, Drug Store Robbed

KANSAS CITY, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Safe breakers entered a postal sub-station and drug store here early today and escaped with a potential loot of $35,888.

Leo Love and Edward T. Monroe, postal inspectors, said the loot from the substation included $650 in negotiable postal notes, $140 in stamps and 346 money orders which could be made out for as much as $100 each and could net the burglars a potential $34,000.

Narcotics valued at $200 and $298 in currency was taken from the drug store. The burglars entered by forcing the front door lock.

No Housing Shortage, Only Shortage Houses For Rent

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—Rep. Gwinn (R-NY) said today that "Actually there is no housing shortage"—only a shortage of dwellings for rent caused by the "monstrous evil" of rent control.

Gwinn called for an end of rent control in a statement to be put into the Congressional Record. Rent control, he said, is "morally and legally wrong" and economically "crazy."

The House Banking committee is holding hearings on a bill to continue the controls. William E. Russell of New York, chairman of the Metropolitan Fair Rent committee, spoke up for a one-year extension, but with provisions for "a reasonable return" on the fair value of the property.

Gwinn's statement asked how there can be a housing shortage when hundreds of thousands of dwellings are being thrown on the market at prices below present building costs. He cited ads in various big newspapers to support his argument there has been a "fantastic increase" in the number of houses and apartments for sale.

Because of rent control, he said, people are trying to sell units formerly offered for rent.

Gwinn said it is "utterly false and irresponsible" to say there would be mass evictions and millions of homeless people if rent controls were removed.

Owners, he said, can charge more than tenants want to pay. But if they charge more than tenants can afford, he said, their property will be vacant. So, he said, rent in a free market automatically will be within the means of tenants to pay.

Discrimination against tenants with children, Gwinn said, probably is the most unfortunate result of rent control. Because of restrictions on rent rates, he said, owners want to avoid the extra upkeep costs on dwellings occupied by families with children.

Promises Of News On Strike

Union Arranges Demonstration In Cleveland's Downtown Area

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17—(AP)—Gov. James H. Duff today promised "some very important news shortly" in Philadelphia's week-old transit strike.

This announcement came as negotiations broke down between the Philadelphia Transportation company and the CIO Transport Workers union.

The governor's comment was made to a Harrisburg news conference in response to a question regarding pending legislation aimed at ending the strike.

"I don't want to talk about it now," Duff said. "There will be some very important news shortly."

No Further Comment

He declined any further comment.

Mayor Bernard Samuel called PTC and union officials to his office for a strike conference. The union arranged a downtown mass demonstration.

Michael J. Quill, international president of the striking CIO-Transport Workers union, told a news conference:

"Negotiations in the transit strike will not be continued until the Philadelphia Transportation company $50,000-a-year president and other responsible company executives sit down at the bargaining table."

The 11,000 members of the CIO union struck Thursday midnight. The union has dropped its original demand for a 25 cent an hour increase to 17 cents. PTC, which operates 1,500 miles of trolly, bus and subway lines in the nation's third largest city, offered three cents.

The 3,500 AFL taxi drivers for the Yellow Cab company struck Tuesday, choking off all main avenues of transportation in the city.

Halt In Talks

There was a complete halt also in wage talks between the Yellow Cab company and the 3,500 AFL taxi drivers who struck Wednesday.

Counsel for the cab company said "We feel it would be purposeless to negotiate with men who are engaged in an illegal strike."

Men and women grumbled to their neighbors as they struggled into the city by the now routine methods of walking, hitch-hiking, driving or riding jammed-to-capacity suburban railway trains.

There was little joking or laughing. One man walking across the courtyard at city hall halted at a traffic light, turned to the stranger beside him and asked, a bit plaintively:

Beat Up Motorists

"How long you think this crazy mess is gonna go on?"

Roving gangs of men beat up three motorists yesterday in the first outbreak of violence since the strike began. One was hurt seriously.

Police added an extra patrol force last night but reduced it today when no new incidents were reported.

Judge Vincent A. Carroll called an all-woman grand jury into special session and told the jurors to "remain always ready" to return indictments for any violence in connection with the strike.

Federal Conciliator John Murray, who has been directing the peacemaking between PTC and the CIO union, said he is hopeful of bringing the two factions together again.

Lewis S. Nichols Dies of Burns

Lewis S. Nichols aged 51, of Cedar City, Mo. died Wednesday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at Bothwell hospital, from burns received when his clothing caught fire at the Milner hotel on Thursday night, February 10. He had been critically burned from the waist up. Mr. Nichols, a water service repair man for the Missouri Pacific, had a room at the hotel since February 6.

He told a physician attending him and others at the time of being fatally burned he evidently dozed while smoking to awake as flames enveloped him. He rushed into a hallway where hotel attendants, members of the fire department and others gave all possible aid. The first to reach him placed a raincoat about him and smothered the fire. His clothing was pulled from his seared body and he was taken in the Ewing ambulance to the hospital.

He was a member of the Methodist church.

He was in the U. S. Marines in World War II.

He is survived by his wife Mrs. Mabel Nichols, and four children: Robert Nichols, Mrs. Catherine Mertens, and Mrs. Mary Allen, all of Jefferson City, and one son of the home.

The body was taken to the Gillespie funeral home and from there to Jefferson City this morning.

The Daily Washington Merry-Go-Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16— It was kept very hush-hush, but Norwegian foreign minister Halvard Lange had a very significant secret luncheon with a group of congressional leaders in House Speaker Sam Rayburn's office just before he returned to Oslo.

At the luncheon, the Norwegian diplomat shrewdly let his hair down to tell American congressional leaders his nation's troubles resulting from its willingness to join the dynamite-laden Atlantic defense pact. Norway has been under terrific pressure from the Russians not to join with the western powers in a mutual defense agreement.

Lange told the congressmen who met with him that Norway was not worried about whether or not to throw in its lot with the west. Rather, Lange said, the thing that concerned the Norwegians, as well as the Danes, was what would happen in the event Russia began massing her troops near the Norwegian border during the period while congress debated and before American aid became effective. Lange showed a brilliant knowledge of the American legislative process.

He estimated it might be five months before American aid reached Norway in quantity. It was this lag, the foreign minister said, that was causing the Norwegians so much concern.

House Speaker Sam Rayburn and Majority leader John McCormack of Massachusetts both expressed the conviction that America would back Norway to the hilt. But both also warned him that the American legislative processes would have to be followed before the aid could be sent. They assured him, however, that if the Russians began threatening Norway, Congress would only act more swiftly.

Upshot of the luncheon, which was also attended by appropriations committee chairman Clarence Cannon of Missouri, foreign relations committee chairman Sol Bloom of New York, Senator Magnuson and Congressman Mitchell, both of Washington, was that Lange's determination to stick with the west was stiffened.

Note: The luncheon for the Norwegian foreign minister was arranged by his old friend, Congressman Henry M. Jackson of Washington.

Truman Asks Autograph

President Truman is still getting a kick out of the mistake the pollsters, predicters and the newspapers made in the last election. He particularly enjoyed the recent book by Morris Ernst — "The People Know Best" — which dissects the mistakes of the press in the late campaign.

"If you hadn't written this book I'd have written it myself," Truman told Ernst, when the latter called at the White House the other day. "It just had to be done."

Truman indicated he had read every word of the book and thoroughly enjoyed the way the press and the predicters were taken apart.

"Herbert Hoover," remarked Truman, "told me he had handed out autographs all his life but never asked for one. But I'm one president who is going to ask for an autograph. I want yours."

Truman handed a copy of Ernst's book back to him while Ernst inscribed it.

Hint Got Franco Loan

Here is the inside story on why Franco Spain after so many years in the state department's doghouse has now been able to get a $25,000,000 loan from the Chase National bank.

The man behind this loan is Paul Culbertson, American charge d' affaires in Madrid. He succeeded in convincing the state department that it is absolutely essential to give Franco some kind of economic help or else he will refuse to cooperate in the Allied plans for defending western Europe. Culbertson sent scores of telegrams warning that Franco was heading for serious trouble unless he got dollars somewhere to buy American machinery and equipment needed to keep his factories running.

The problem stumped the state department for awhile, because it could not risk giving Spain an American government loan without arousing a loud protest from many Americans who consider Franco very much a dictator. Finally it was decided to pass the word quietly to the Chase National bank that it was all right to give Franco a loan. Chase National jumped at the chance, because it's a good business deal that may lead to more loans of this kind.

The state department, meanwhile, is sitting back to watch how Franco spends this first loan so it can decide whether to open up the U. S. Export-Import bank to him for further help. Needless to say, Paul Culbertson is now aces high with Dictator Franco for making all this possible.

Austrian Treaty Kaput

Sam Reyber, the American representative at the discussions for an Austrian peace treaty, wants to come back home. Reyder has reported to the state department that, with the conference only three days old, it's already quite clear the Russians have no intention whatsoever of coming to any agreement on Austria.

Therefore, Reyber has suggested that rather than waste time further, he let an understudy take over his position at the conference while he comes back to Washington to do some real work. The state department, however, is still convinced that the Austrian negotiations by the Big Four deputies to the foreign ministers now going on in London will result in enough concessions by the Russians to warrant a Big Four meeting in New York in April. Actually, the state department is convinced the Russians want to pit Molotov against Acheson to try out our new secretary of state for size, weight, height and reach.

Business Biggies in Washington

President Truman has been holding some highly important off-the-record meetings with business leaders because of his concern about a possible depression. The second meeting took place at Blair House secretly last Thursday and those present included Ward Canaday, head of the Willys-Overland, the motor car company; Frank Baer, vice president of the Bank of America; Joe Love, president of Burlington Mills, and Vice President Alben Barkley.

Henry Ford II was invited but was prevented from coming by bad flying weather. Grave concern was expressed over Federal Reserve Board limitations on installment buying which, it was said, were threatening increased unemployment.

The industrialists told the president and Barkley that the one element blocking continued production is the Federal Reserve Board's limit on installment buying.

Canaday of Willys and Baer of the Bank of America pointed out that drastic cutbacks in auto production would mean a real softening of the entire steel market, including the shutdown of some marginal mills.

Truman and Barkley seemed impressed by what they heard, promised to take the regulation up with Federal Reserve Board chairman Thomas B. McCabe.

Discussion On Ten-Year Revision

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—The joint House and Senate legislative research committee organized late Wednesday and discussed preliminary plans for carrying out the required 10-year law revision.

Senator Emery W. Allison (D) of Rolla, president pro tem of the Senate, was named chairman. Rep. C. P. Turley, (D) of Carter county, House Democratic floorleader, was named vice-chairman.

The committee authorized a ten member subcommittee to continue studying what laws should be brought up to date by revision. A report also was made by the permanent research staff.

More than 119 revision bills already are prepared for introduction, the committee said. The total is expected to reach 300 on revision matters alone.

Allison said he believed the legislature could carry the revision bills right along with other legislation.

Printing of a study by the permanent staff of eleemosynary institutions in Wisconsin Massachusetts, New Jersey and Oklahoma was authorized. It will supplement a study made of similar institutions in Missouri.

Polio Victim Adds To March Of Dimes

LEBANON, Mo., Feb. 17—(AP)—Jimmy Adkins, a victim of polio three years ago, decided the March of Dimes could use his money to better advantage than he could a guitar.

So when he heard that the campaign was lagging in Laclede county he took the money he had been saving for the instrument and added it to the fund.

But nine-year old Jimmy will get his guitar anyway. Residents reading of the boy's sacrifice, began taking up a collection. Today they had enough to buy Jimmy a guitar.

More Helpers At More Pay

House Group For Providing It To Attorney General

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—A House committee agreed Wednesday Atty. Gen. J. E. Taylor ought to have more legal assistants and be able to pay each of them more money.

The fees and salaries committee approved a bill which would knock out a 26-year-old law limiting the number of assistant attorneys general and putting a ceiling on their salaries.

The measure now goes to the House floor for debate.

Under the present law, Taylor can not pay any assistant more than $3,500 a year. Most of them get $3,000 or less.

"But you can't get good lawyers for that kind of money," Taylor said.

If the bill passes the only limitation on salaries he can pay and the assistants he could hire would be in the amount of his appropriation.

Asked $1,197,000

But his announced plans for increasing his staff and hiking salaries would cost more than the amount which would be allotted to him under a pending appropriations bill. The bill would give him a total of $656,000 for all operations of his office for the coming two fiscal years. He asked the appropriations committee for a big increase—to give him a total of $1,197,000.

He said if he had that much he would be able to hire 40 full time assistant attorneys and pay them all substantially more than he can give them now under statutory limitations.

The hike is necessary, he said, because his office must handle a lot more work under the 1945 constitution and because salaries everywhere are much higher than they were when the present law was passed more than a quarter century ago.

The measure also authorizes a $100,000 revolving fund which his office could use to put up court costs. Taylor said he believed 90 per cent of the funds would be returned as his office usually wins about that proportion of the suits filed.

School Hard Hit By The Mumps

MOBERLY, Mo., Feb. 17—(AP)—The South Park elementary school is hard hit by mumps.

Seventeen pupils and the principal, Mrs. Joseph Meade, have the disease.

Only a few cases of mumps have been reported in the city's five other grade and two elementary schools.

Taxes Go Out the Window

They have "direct taxation" in Tokyo. Here tax collectors seize a chest of drawers from a delinquent taxpayer. Japan's finance ministry, angered by a tax delinquency of over 40,000,000,000 yen, has authorized the confiscation of furniture and clothing of non-paying citizens. They'll be sold at public auction by the tax office.

Plunge Of 18 Stories To Death

OKLAHOMA CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—A middle-aged businessman jumped 18-floors to his death here Wednesday afternoon—just as a policeman neared him in a rescue attempt.

The victim was John W. Braselton, 44, owner of the Federal Building Materials Co. and a former Tulsan. He plunged from the 18th story fire escape of the Petroleum building at NW 2nd and Robinson.

A crowd of late shoppers and home-bound office workers watched for five minutes while Braselton climbed back and forth over the rail before he threw himself off.

Attracted by the crowd, motorcycle patrolman Bill Maulding raced to the 18th floor to seize the man.

"I opened the door to the fire escape—thinking I could grab him," Maulding said. "Before I could get outside he threw one leg over the railing and went over."

Braselton's body hit a retaining wall and dropped into a small walled court in back of the building. It was badly mangled.

No note was found and there was no immediate explanation why Braselton jumped. His name was learned from a social security card and Mrs. Braselton later confirmed the identification.

Killed When Train Struck Their Auto

CARL JUNCTION, Mo., Feb. 17—(AP)—A couple identified as Mr. and Mrs. Bert M. Logan, Springfield were killed Wednesday as their motor car was struck by a Frisco passenger train at a grade crossing a mile northwest of here.

Don Roney, Carl Junction undertaker, said skid marks on the pavement indicated the driver had attempted to stop the car before reaching the crossing. Both bodies were thrown from the car which was carried for a distance of 50 feet down the tracks.

The train was No. 121 southbound from Fort Scott to Joplin.

The bodies were taken to a Joplin mortuary.

Would Put REA In 'Phone Field

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—The secretary of agriculture, farm groups and farmers themselves went down the line Wednesday for a bill to put the Rural Electrification Administration into the telephone field.

Secretary Brannan told a House agriculture subcommittee that phone service certainly is one thing that is needed to help bring rural people to a living standard more nearly equal to that of city folks.

Brannan said the "important arguments" for letting REA make loans to develop rural telephone service have been presented ably by others. Within the limitations of the budget, he said, he is for it and wants Congress to give "serious consideration to this type of legislation."

Representatives of National Grange, National Farms Union, an organization of REA cooperatives, and three farmers spoke up, too, for the bill.

Telephone companies put in protests against it yesterday. Bell system spokesmen said rural service is being built up. Representatives of independent companies said the bill would put them out of business eventually, that it would mean duplicating existing phone lines in many places.

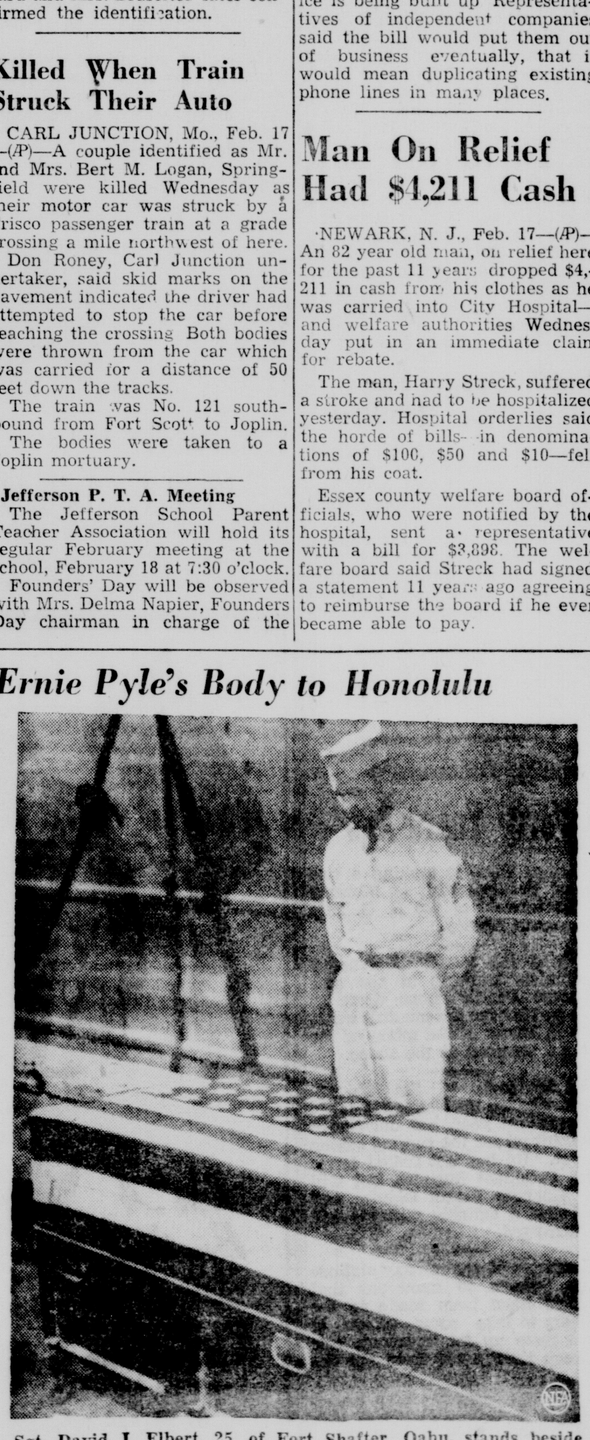

Man On Relief Had $4,211 Cash

NEWARK, N. J., Feb. 17—(AP)—An 82 year old man, on relief here for the past 11 years, dropped $4,211 in cash from his clothes as he was carried into City Hospital—and welfare authorities Wednesday put in an immediate claim for rebate.

The man, Harry Streck, suffered a stroke and had to be hospitalized yesterday. Hospital orderlies said the horde of bills—in denominations of $100, $50 and $10—fell from his coat.

Essex county welfare board officials, who were notified by the hospital, sent a representative with a bill for $3,896. The welfare board said Streck had signed a statement 11 years ago agreeing to reimburse the board if he ever became able to pay.

GOOD farming makes more prosperous farmers and better business for the rural community. That's why so many farmers and business men in Missouri are interested in the Balanced Farming Program. There's no future for the state in wasted land or unprofitable farms.

Balanced Farming calls for the establishment of a farming program that will make the best use of the land, labor and capital available for the particular farm and family. It is farm management in its broad sense.

It calls for a system that will give the highest net income consistent with continuing improvement of the soil and it is a part of the Balanced Farming philosophy that the major objective must be a better farm family living. Every step is planned from the start.

Balanced Farming is working out for thousands of farmers, stockmen and dairymen in Missouri. Many of these report better corn production and profit, better pastures, a beef cow increase of 20 per cent, a dairy cow increase of 50 per cent, better and happier homes with better facilities.

To start a Balanced Farming Program all that is necessary is to see your County Agent, Soil Conservation District Supervisor, or write the Missouri College of Agriculture, Columbia, Mo. You will receive full instructions on how to proceed.

The prosperity of Missouri's rural communities depends largely upon the prosperity of the farmer . . . as he prospers, they likewise prosper.

Just as the Balanced Farming Program makes Missouri farms more productive and profitable, modern utility service in the farm home is making life easier and more pleasant for Missouri farmers and their families. The investor-owned, tax-paying utility companies of Missouri are proud of the part they play in bringing better living to Missouri communities and farms. Their program for extending their service is continuous to the end that modern lighting, tested appliances and labor saving devices may bring new leisure to all the people of our great state.

Recover Auto Of California Governor

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark., Feb. 17—(AP)—Sheriff Joe Story reported Wednesday he had recovered an automobile stolen from Gov. Earl Warren of California.

Story said he found the automobile, a 1947 Lincoln sedan, in the Ozark mountains some 20 miles south of here. It was at the home of a man on whom he was to serve a property attachment, he said. The man had gone.

The sedan bore California license plates. Today Story said he was notified by California authorities the automobile was that of the governor and was being sent for.

Painting Of Jesus Disappears From Chapel

LAWRENCE, Kas., Feb. 17—(AP)—A large oil painting of Jesus, valued at $500, disappeared from Danforth chapel at the University of Kansas Tuesday night.

Police said they had no clues in the theft.

The painting was given to the University by C. H. Poindexter, a St. Louis insurance executive, when the chapel was dedicated April 2, 1946

A copy of Hoffman's original "Christ in Gethsemane," the painting measures about 4 by 5 feet.

Window Shoppers Make Good Customers

Carol Williams and Bud Johnson, window-shopping after a date in Detroit, Mich., make a purchase through a device which transforms after-hours window-shoppers into cash customers. It's installed in a men's store window. The window-shopper drops a quarter in the slot, speaks his order, name, address and telephone number into a microphone, which is connected to a tape recorder. Each morning a store employe plays back the orders, verifies them by telephone, and then they're filled.

THE STORY: Assigned to Cottage 15 at a de luxe resort, John Henry and Sin Conover, quiz show winners, receive an unexplained visit from an armed man, Homer Anglin, soon after their arrival. While dining later, a Queen of Diamonds on which is written "Your deal," is given to Johnny. Anglin appears, fatally wounded, and tells Johnny "You already got it," before he dies. Returning to the cottage, the Conovers find it occupied by Faye Jordan and their luggage moved to Cottage 14, next door, and searched. Mr. Trim, representative of the quiz show sponsor, gave permission to move the luggage. Johnny also learns the resort is owned by Mr. Barselou, who also owns the cafe where the murder occurred.

XI

"NO!" The other two jumped at John Henry's outburst and he flushed. "I mean, no. Maybe now that Barselou's searched our stuff, he's convinced we haven't got what he's after. Besides, I'd feel like a dope telling all this extra stuff to that police lieutenant now."

"Mr. Lay didn't like us particularly at the time."

"I'd feel like a dope. I thought I was smart keeping some of this to myself—he'd give me life if I changed stories now."

The Bry-Ter representative got out his ivory toothpick and worked on his teeth while he considered. "Say, that's obstructing justice. But that's not my department. If you just want to forget it . . ."

A little while after that he retrieved his straw hat, took quite a while bidding both the Conovers good night and finally left. Sin and John Henry undressed in silence.

"You know, Sin," John Henry mused as he buttoned his pajama top absently, "I was thinking about what you said earlier tonight. Who are we?"

She giggled. "Gee, we know, don't we?"

"We don't know who Barselou thinks we are. Sin, he's fighting somebody he's never seen—or he'd never have mistaken us for them."

Rolling back the sleeves of her robe contemplatively, Sin said, "But, poor Anglin knew we were wrong—after he saw you. What was he trying to deliver?"

"That's over our heads." He folded back the bedcovers in a neat triangle on each side. "But first Anglin tries to drop off his 'it' here and no luck. Then he tries to give it to Barselou—and gets stopped right at his back door—bang! He gets delirious and thinks he's given something to me. Why me?"

• • •

"MAYBE he thought you were Barselou," his wife said. "You've been putting on weight lately."

"No," said John Henry, pointedly ignoring her, "it was probably a mistake. But, mistake or not, Anglin decided to give it to me instead of Barselou."

"That'd be swell—except that you didn't get anything, you don't know what you didn't get and you don't know where it is now." She started for the bathroom. "We'll leave well enough alone. You were the guy who said that."

"Okay, okay. But I notice you've been thinking about it too."

Sin paused with one hand on the doorknob. "Suppose Anglin came up the canyon counting the cottages instead of reading the numbers. That's what I've been thinking."

"Suppose he did. It's dark and it'd be easier than walking up on every front porch."

"You know how some buildings and hotels don't have any thirteenth floor? 'Cause people are superstitious? So they just skip that number."

"Wait a minute—I see what you mean, Sin—"

"Uh-huh. I'll bet there's no Cottage 13."

"Sure, that's it! Clever girl, honey. That means if Anglin came along counting cottages—and got our old Cottage 15—he was one number over."

"See, Johnny? Anglin came into the fourteenth cottage. But he wanted Cottage 14. Now let's drop it."

• • •

JOHN HENRY swung his legs off the bed and sat up excitedly. "Hey, maybe Anglin was going to meet the girl here in 14. Anglin makes a mistake and comes to 15, instead. As soon as she finds it out—wait a minute! How'd she find it out?"

Sin sighed. "Does it matter?"

"Sure. After Anglin left, you had me turn the porch light on, Sin. She could have seen the blood next to the door where he put his hand. So she guesses her man has been there and insists on having the cottage he visited. Make sense?"

"I guess so."

"She figures that Anglin left whatever he was to deliver in 15. So she wants to have the cottage and a good chance to look for it. Just in case, our stuff is searched, too."

"Well, which side do you have your Miss Jordan on?" sin asked. "Did she mess up our clothes or did Barselou's Mr. Gayner? I'm lost." She opened the bathroom door.

"You know, Sin," said John Henry, pleasantly thoughtful, "I think it would be a smart thing if I tried to get chummy with the Jordan girl tomorrow and—"

Sin stopped right where she was. "Oh, you do!"

"Well, I just thought that she could probably clear things up for me in about two minutes. That's all."

"I don't doubt it. She looks like it, all right."

"You jealous?" John Henry asked in pleased tones.

"Well, maybe just a little bit."

"Don't be a dope. You don't have a thing to be jealous about and you know it."

"Oh, I don't know," said his wife grudgingly. "Maybe you like that slinky type."

"I like my women redheaded. With green eyes. And . . ." With both hands he traced a symmetrical outline in the air.

Acheson Says U. S. Aims At Effective Pact

By Dewitt Mackenzie
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

Secretary of State Acheson yesterday entered the warm debate over the projected North Atlantic Alliance with the declaration that the United States proposes to make it an effective security pact.

This followed Monday's senate discussion which demonstrated there was strong opposition to making any pledge which would lead other members of the alliance to expect American-armed aid to be automatic in case they are attacked. That is to say, the opponents wouldn't pledge the country to war in advance of the event, but would make the decision when the crisis arose.

Because of this there is uneasiness among other prospective alliance members who want absolute assurances of American aid. The countries concerned, besides America, are Canada, Britain, France, Belgium, The Netherlands and Luxembourg. Norway and Denmark also are considering joining and there might be others.

No Real Differences

Acheson emphasized that "there are no real differences in regard to the objectives which this government is seeking to accomplish." He cited President Truman's inauguration speech as a principal statement of American policy. The chief executive then said the primary purpose of regional defense agreements under the U. N. charter "is to provide unmistakable proof of the joint determination of the free countries to resist armed attack from any quarter."

The signs now are that the prospective members of the alliance will have to be satisfied with this clear declaration of determination.

One inevitably recalls the world rocking debate over this same issue in the senate back in 1920. That august body then refused to raitfy the German peace treaty mainly because it included the covenant of the League of Nations. The covenant in turn contained an article pledging the signatory powers "to respect and preserve as against external aggression the territorial integrity and existing political independence of all members of the league." The senate wouldn't swallow that.

Prime Minister's Suggestion

As a matter of fact, David Lloyd George, Britain's famous wartime prime minister, had suggested to President Woodrow Wilson that the senate might take just such an attitude. This was while the two statesmen were attending the Paris peace conference and it provided one of the historic moments of that parley.

The "Little Welsh Wizard," as Llody George sometimes was called, advocated that the covenant be kept separate from the treaty. But President Wilson was said to have felt sure of his ground, and he wanted the covenant in the treaty. So that's where the covenant went, for Mr. Wilson was the dominant figure at the conference and he was the father of the league.

Your columnist saw the dramatic signing of that treaty in the palace of Versailles. He saw the Big Three — Wilson, Clemenceau and Lloyd George — descend to the palace gardens in response to the demand of the vast crowd. There the trio walked arm in arm among the eager throng, while thousands crowded about in an effort to touch them with adoring fingers — and the secret service men sweated blood for fear of some "accident" to one of the great men.

Crowning Moment

That probably was the crowning moment in the lives of the Big Three. Much of the tribute of the multitude was for the achievement of the League of Nations, the hope of universal peace.

Yet a little later the covenant went on the rocks of that article—committing America to fight in advance of the event.

The interesting and pertinent fact remains that when the Second World war came, America was on the firing line without having committed herself in advance. Most observers believe self-interest, if nothing else, would again see her on the battle front should a major conflict develop.

Battle For Life 7,000 Feet In Air

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Feb. 17 — (AP) — Pilot Don Dorothy said Wednesday he was forced to battle for his life with a passenger Monday when his plane was 7,000 feet in the air over Alaska's mountains.

The passenger, Lorado Bello, 36, San Francisco Filipino, was taken in custody by the U. S. Marshall when the prane landed. He was removed to Providence hospital for observation.

Dorothy said he had no warning before he was struck a hard blow in the back of the head by Bello, the only other person in the Christensen airlines plane.

Once the passenger had Dorothy in a stranglehold and the pilot whipped the plane into a barrel roll to break the hold. Finally Dorothy snatched up a fire extinguished and knocked Bello cold.

Dorothy said his passenger was flying to Anchorage to meet a Seattle-bound plane, intending to undergo medical treatment in the southern city.

Money Comes First When College Boys Pick a Job

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16—(AP)—Looks like dough comes first when college boys pick a job.

You mean they'd put pay ahead of doing a public service, like working for the government? Sure.

That's what the Hoover commission found after sending questions to 3,448 seniors in 94 colleges.

The commission is headed by former president Herbert Hoover. It's been working 16 months to find ways of making the government better.

And it told Congress it learned these things from questioning the college seniors:

Over half the seniors said salary is the most important thing to them in choosing a job.

And the pay in the government, they said, isn't as good as in private business.

That fact isn't new, of course, but it's one of the main reasons why only one out of four of the seniors said he was interested in a government job.

Promotion Second

And what's the second most important thing to the seniors in looking for a job?

Almost half said chances for promotion. And on that one, too, they think private business is better than the government.

On three less important counts they said government work was better than private business:

Their job in the government would be safer; the government would give them more chance for public service; and there would be more benefits like leave, or time off, and retirement pay.

This is one of the reasons why the commission told Congress it had better do something about making government jobs more attractive.

Must Attract Good Workers

It said the government can't hope to move on an even keel, with good spirit among its employes, unless it can attract some of the best college men and women graduating each year.

This will give an idea of what a merry-go-round the government is in hiring and keeping people:

In 1939 only 900,000 people were working for the government. The war came and by 1945 there were 3,700,000 people on the payroll. There are still 2,100,000.

This drop from 3,700,000 was due to the government's getting back on a peacetime basis and dropping temporary, or wartime, workers.

But—since 1945 the government has released or lost 3,900,000 employes and hired 2,800,000.

When you add the 3,900,000 dropped since 1945 to the 2,800,000 hired since then, you wind up with a total of 6,700,000 people who moved in and out of government jobs in only three years.

This is a pretty sad story for people who may be thinking of trying to make a career out of government work.

You can see why from this report of the commission:

Almost nine out of 10 new appointments to government jobs are replacements for those who have quit.

Reasons For Leaving

Among the quits—and this hurts the government — were a lot of key people and executives. Why did they get out? The commission asked over 600 of them and got answers from 300.

The average pay for the 300, while they were in the government, was $7,767 after an average of 13½ years in the government.

They gave these reasons as main ones for leaving:

Almost half said "Not enough pay." And almost 60 per cent said there was less chance for advancement in the government than in private business.

Their answers were almost identical to those of the college seniors.

And . . . only 16 per cent of the 300 said they'd be willing to work for the government again. And . . . only 36 per cent said they'd advise other people to seek careers in the government.

Brant, Mrs. Proctor, with three absentees. Mrs. O. J. Stratman, president, heard the business meeting and presented Mrs. W. H. Michaelis as the leader on the subject, "Historical Missouri Landmarks." Misses Jean Briscoe and Betty Ann Bailey sang, "The Missouri Waltz" and Bill Dawson followed with "Old Man River." These two musical numbers formed the setting for a very finely developed and most studious talk about historical Missouri landmarks. Two of the younger matrons of the club, Mesdames Phil Bowline and I. H. Jewell in colonial costume, brought a basket of antiques from the Moclay home in Tipton and discussed each of them. Mrs. Roscoe Gibson closed the program with her thoughtful devotional. A valentine lunch was served.

'Music of Romance' Presented To HGS Music Club, Guests

Mrs. E. F. Yancey, the life president, greeted husbands and escorts of the club members at the annual evening program of the Helen G. Steele music clug. It was held at 8:00 o'clock Wednesday at the Heard Memorial club house.

The light strain of the program, "Music of Romance," was well accepted by a very interested audience. Mrs. William E. Hurlbut, Jr., and Mrs. Fred Handley were co-chairmen and arranged to have music from the light operas, so familiar to all. As a background for "Music of Romance," the stage was cleverly decorated with red satin hearts and white spring flowers. The printed programs, too, were clever, carrying out the Valentine theme, in red and white.

The program presented was:

My Hero, Victor Herbert. When You're Away, Victor Herbert, Mrs. Robert Seelen, Mrs. Henry C. Salveter, accompanist.

Serenade from the Student Prince, Sigmund Romberg. I'll See You Again — From Bittersweet, Noel Coward, Mrs. Frank Evans, Mr. Neal Powers, Mrs. Henry Salveter, accompanist.

Romance Music in a Lighter Mood, That Old Gang of Mine, Shine, Sweet Sue.

Encore—A medley of Carolina Moon and Drifting and Dreaming —Sedalia Men's Choral Club quartette, Mr. Z. Lyle Brown, Mr. T. R. Snow, Mr. Neal Powers, Mr. Robert Austin.

Victor Herbert Favorites—Arrangements by Stone. Stardust, Carmichael. Encore—Third Prelude, Gershwin. Miss Jerry Teufel, Mrs. Duane Ewing, Duo-pianists.

Following the program, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Hurlbut, Jr., entertained at their home with a festive open-house for all who took part in the evening's entertainment and their families.

Mitchum Knows How to Milk

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 17.—(AP)—Robert Mitchum, who started his movie career as a cowboy, began his stay in the Wayside prison honor farm by milking a cow—and quite expertly, too.

Denying he had ever milked, the husky actor showed considerable skill in helping Daisy Mae, a prison farm cow, produce a bucket of milk.

Mitchum and seven other prisoners were taken to the farm yesterday from the county jail. Today the film hero begins his new job of making cement blocks seven hours a day.

Mitchum hated to leave his cell in the jail narcotics ward. He said he felt some men at the honor camp might recent his being in the movies. Also, he added, "My wife came to see me every day there." She can only visit on Sundays at the farm.

However, he will have more freedom at the farm. And he'll get three squares a day, instead of two meals and a luncheon of soup in jail.

Mitchum and Actress Lila Leeds were sentenced to serve 60 days each for conspiring to possess marijuana. They have served eight days of their sentences, which may be cut to 50 days because of good behavior.

Shutdown Will Idle 7,000

DETROIT, Feb. 17.—(AP)—A shutdown of possibly three weeks at Kaiser-Frazer Corp's Willow Run plant was announced by the management today.

It was attributed to plans for the production of two new utility model cars. Starting at the close of business today it will idle about 7,000 production workers who have been on a four-days a week schedule.

Meanwhile 17,600 Hudson Motor and U. S. Rubber employes returned to work after two days of idleness.

K-F has been building slightly under 300 cars a day since its recent production cutback.

The new utility models, going into production ahead of schedule, look like standard sedans, but function like light trucks or station wagons. One, called the Traveler, will retail at the factory for $2,088, including accessories. It will be the lowest price car in the K-F line.

Important Events In The World News

MOSCOW, Feb. 17 — (AP) — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhomer's appointment as Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff is receiving considerable attention from the Soviet press.

Most newspapers published a dispatch credited to a Washington correspondent of the London Observer, saying the appointment was connected with formation of an American general staff to deal with planning military aid to Europe.

It also is being asserted that Eisenhower will devote his attention to the Mediterranean area. A story from Athens was carried under the headline: "Coming arrival of Eisenhower in Greece."

NEW YORK, Feb. 17—(AP)—Federal Judge Harold R. Medina told defense attorneys in the trial of 11 top U. S. Communists today that "I'm the boy that's running the show."

Addressing himself to Harry Sacher, one of the most vociferous of the defense lawyers, the presiding judge added:

"You're going to learn your place here and this is a very good time and occasion to do it."

Medina's sharp comments came after Sacher objected to the overruling of one of his requests during his cross-examination of a prosecution witness, Joseph F. McKenzie, federal jury clerk.

LONDON, Feb. 17—(AP)—The British government has suspended four scientists engaged in secret defense research because of doubts about their loyalty.

The Institution of Professional Civil Servants announced the suspensions today. It said three of the men were employed by the Ministry of Supply and one by the Admiralty. The names were not made public. The Ministry of Supply has charge of such defense projects as atomic weapons, guided missiles and high speed aircraft.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—A proposal to cut off filibusters officially reached the Senate today but leaders agreed to put off action on it for 11 days.

The proposed change in Senate rules would allow two-thirds of the Senators voting —64 if all 96 are present—to choke off debate and obtain a vote at any time.

Democratic leader Lucas (D-Ill.) announced that he and Republican floor leader Wherry of Nebraska had agreed to take up the matter Feb. 28.

Sweet Words Were Costly

BOSTON, Feb. 17—(AP)—Though he termed them "literary exercises," the letters of a telephone company executive addressing a Pennsylvania banker's wife as "Sugarpuss" and "Supermellow" will cost him $5,000.

A federal jury awarded that amount yesterday to Charles Gordon, 34, of Scottdale, Pa., in his $50,000 alienation suit against Stanley W. Parker, 49, of Winthrop, Mass.

Gordon charged that while he was serving overseas as an army Lieutenant Colonel, Parker dated and wrote endearing letters to Mrs. Naomi Bishop Gordon, 33.

Parker defended his letters to the petite brunette as mere "literary exercises" and asserted their friendship was "purely platonic."

The jury deliberated six hours before reaching a verdict in the two-day trial.

Parker admitted writing and dating Mrs. Gordon, but denied they had sexual relations.

Mrs. Gordon, since divorced by her husband, testified to "kissing and petting" with Parker, but told the jury that they never had intimate relations.

Parker's attorney said an appeal will be filed.

The motion picture industry was in its infancy when the country flocked to see crude pictures of the Jeffries-Fitzsimmons championship bout in 1899. Vacant storerooms with plank seats were improvised for theatres.

NEARLY FOUR DECADES before Jeffries took Fitzsimmons' measure, Chapin & Gore Bourbon was known to bourbon lovers. Its popularity continues today—the smooth, distinctive flavor of C & G makes it the choice of men who appreciate good whiskey.

Cut Six Thinly, For it Has Long Way To Slide Laterally to Contact Seven

Joe Wilman . . . if you follow this line of direction, you can't go far wrong.

By Joe Wilman
Former National Match Game Champion

A nose hit on the headpin often leaves the 6-7, 6-7-10, 4-10 or 4-7-10 railroad.

These are tough leaves, but not impossible, especially when we play them in the correct manner.

Let's consider the 6-7.

To get the best angle, move to the left side of the approach.

Walking toward the 10-pin, we aim directly at it.

If our aim is true, the ball should hit the 6 thinly on the right side, sliding it across to carry the 7-pin.

Try to cut the 6 as thinly as possible, for it has a long way to slide laterally.

The shot may be accomplished by cutting the 6 so thinly that it passes in front of the 7-pin, but contacts the latter coming out of the gutter or off the kickback.

On the other hand, unless the bowler cuts the 6 very fine, he has no chance to take advantage of either the gutter or the kickback.

The 6 will fall into the pit in back of the 7-pin.

Note in the graph how far to the left of the approach you should go and where the left foot should be placed at the four line.

If you follow this line of direction, you can't go far wrong.

Serious in Hospital Clowning

Schacht Finds Baseball Still Has a Hold on the Wounded GIs

By Frank Eck
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK—Baseball still has a marvelous hold on the wounded GIs, says Al Schacht, baseball's clown prince who has just returned from a tour of southern hospitals.

"Baseball has nothing to worry about as long as the veterans continue to show their interest," says the funny man who is serious about his hospital visits.

"You can talk football or hockey to these kids. But baseball! That gets 'em.

"The spirit of the American kid is remarkable. They never let out a beef. I have yet to hear a boy complain."

During his recent 5,000-mile jaunt through the south, Schacht visited hospitals in Richmond, Va.; Asheville, N. C.; Atlanta and Augusta, Ga., and Lake City, Fla. At some hospitals he gave away dollar bills for those fortunate enough to answer his four stock questions.

He asks them their name, home town and weight and tops it off with a baseball question. "I'm no fool," says Al. "But I must be slipping or the GIs are brushing up on their baseball. At one hospital I gave away $6 and pretty soon everybody wanted up on the stage.

"At another place I visited some mental patients. I thought I was entertaining them and all the while they were ribbing me.

"I walked in and a big fellow recognizes me. He's about six-foot-three and has his feet on the table. 'Hey,' he shouts, 'what's wrong with you?'

"Not a thing,' I said. "I'm here to form a baseball team."

"'Look,' the fellow says 'those guys aren't interested. But tell me what you want and I'll fix everything. I'm the king here.'

"So I say 'OK you're the king but who wants to pitch?'

"Pretty soon there's a chap winding up without anything in his hand. He's throwing an imaginary baseball. He's my pitcher. Then I see a fellow walking around in circles. I stop him. He says he's running the bases.

"Pretty soon I get enough men to form a team but nobody wants to catch. These boys know what it's all about. Catching is too tough, they tell me. So I go away convinced if we ever get to play I've got to be their catcher."

Schacht says he probably gets more entertainment out of visiting veterans than they do out of his efforts to entertain them. It's fun when they get him into a baseball argument. "I usually wind up in the middle," he says.

Al Schacht Back From Tour

Raconteur and Restaurateur Al Schacht likes to recall how he got in on the Italian invasion.

"It was 4 o'clock on a Friday morning, Sept. 3, 1943," says Schacht. "The previous day I had entertained Montgomery and his British 8th Army and part of the U. S. 5th army at the Cantania Opera House in Sicily.

"On the third day they flew me to Italy. When we hit the airfield three jerries strafed us. The pilot told me to lie on the ground. It all happened in 10 seconds. 'If you can shake, get up,' he said. I shook all over. I had never been in a war before.

"I saw tanks rolling through the streets. I learned it was the British 8th Army. There I was in on the invasion and didn't know it.

"They gave me a room in a broken down hotel and a major told me to grab an hour's sleep. I never got a chance to sleep. Shrapnel was flying all over the town. Part of the hotel balcony went flying through my room.

"I removed a cot from a closet, put it against the door to the room and ran into the closet. When I did that the lock snapped. There I was locked in the closet with the cot against the door of the room. It was almost impossible for anyone to reach me. A major broke down both doors.

"Another time we were aboard ship a half mile off shore. Radar picked up enemy planes and we abandoned ship. I was undressed at the time, ready to take my first shower bath in seven weeks. I spent the next few hours in a sewer."

Schacht is an old hand at entertaining veterans. During the war he visited 275 hospitals in North Africa, Sicily, Italy, New Guinea, the Philippines.

And it's not because the nurses are pretty. "It's the corn in me," says Al, "and the kids love it."

Hubbard Beats Springfield 52-51

The Hubbard Tigers defeated a fighting aggregation at Springfield Wednesday night in a very tight game. Mason, Tiger forward who is fast becoming the best basketball player to appear in a blue and white uniform, had a field dropping in twenty-nine points for the evening. Boyd Lincoln forward led the Springfield cagers with 17 points.

Hubbard led at the first quarter 8 to 6 and 29 to 19 at the half. Springfield found the range in the third quarter and pulled up to 46 to 32. The final score of 52 to 51 resulted with Johnson Tiger substitute dropping in a two pointer in the last 20 seconds after a series of fouls, technical and personal, had enabled the Lincoln High school team to tie the score and go ahead 51 to 50.

The Hubbard Tigers will journey to Moberly Friday to play Lincoln high school and attend the conference tournament at Hannibal Saturday where they will meet Dalton in the first round.

The Sedalia Vet's Negro semi-pro ball club will meet the Dalton Falcons tonight in a ball game beginning at 8:30 p. m. The elementary schools of Sedalia and Dalton will in a preliminary at 7:30. Would Promote Boys' League

Members of the Northeast Athletic Association of Sedalia held a regular meeting at the Jefferson school Wednesday night.

The meeting was an important one where plans were discussed to promote a boys' league in Sedalia.

An endeavor is being made by the association to promote these teams from Sedalia schools. Any boy between the age of 9 and 16 years of age will have an opportunity to play ball without any obligation on his par t .

The baseball equipment will be furnished by the association, but they are asking for volunteer coaches, such as fathers or anyone who might be interested in coaching a boys' team.

M. F. Thomas is president of the Northeast Athletic Association, Herschel Sumners, secretary treasurer and Davey Jones is the business manager for the Sedalia Blues, a baseball team which is sponsored by the association.

Meetings will be held the first and third Wednesdays of each month at the Jefferson school. Over three hundred members belong to this organization.

It Will be a Colt Day When National Loop Lets Baltimore in

By Dick Kleiner
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK — The biggest stumbling block between the warring professional football leagues were the Baltimore Colts.

The All-America Conference wanted them included in any new arrangement. The National league said no.

In fact, the National leaguers insist it will be a Colt day when they change their mind.

Ohio State fullback Joe Whistler, the draft rights on whom are owned by the Brooklyn Dodgers, says he probably won't play professional football.

Branch Rickey, merging the Dodgers with the New York Yankees, would no doubt prefer that Joe whistle another tune.

The newest foreign challenger for the heavyweight championship is the German titleholder, Hein Ten Hoff.

Just another example of post-war inflation — from nein to Ten Hoff.

Regular Winner

EAST LANSING, Mich.—(AP)—Michigan State's head football coach, Clarence I (Biggie) Munn, has a record as assistant or head coach of college teams since 1932 of 107 victories, 30 defeats and ten ties. Oonly one of those 17 seasons was a losing one.

Independents To Play Columbia

The Sedalia Independents basketball team, now under the sponsorship of the Pacific Cafe and the Cramer and Schrader Construction company, will meet a fast moving Columbia squad tonight at 8:00 o'clock at Convention hall.

The Columbia team will bring to Sedalia some of the best athletic material of the University of Missouri. Dan Pippin, the leading scorer of the Big Seven conference until he was recently declared ineligible to play, will be seen in action. Pippin is an outstanding cage star, and plans to enter professional basketball after leaving school. Two M. U. football stars, Wilbur Volz, fullback, and Bus Entsminger, quarterback, will be on hand, along with Herschel Robertson; R. G. Smith, Cyril DeLoy, and Ken Shockeley.

The Independents recently defeated Columbia at the Nelson tournament by a score of 49 to 41. However, both teams have been strengthened since that time, which should provide an even closer contest.

A new member on the Sedalia squad is Foster "Red" McGuire of Knob Noster. McGuire along with Darrah of Sedalia, made the all-star team at the Warsaw tournament of bout two weeks ago.

Tarzan Wins Over Newman

Tarzan Kowalski, 265 pound Poland giant beat Leo Newman, 245 pound Canadian in the main event on the Pettis County Post No. 16, American Legion wrestling card, Wednesday night. But the victory was not obtained until plenty of roughness was displayed on the part of both wrestlers, which thrilled and pleased the hungry thrill seeking ringsiders.

Kowalski won the first fall when Newman was disqualified after he had roughed up Referee Sammy Feeback. It was 10 minutes and 31 seconds after the first fall period had started. The second fall came in seven minutes and 43 seconds, with a slugfest and body slams by Tarzan.

Newman succeeded in grabbing the giant and throwing him through the ropes on the east side of the ring and then knocked him into the crowd twice when he tried to crawl back into the ring. The third try Tarzan grabbed Newman and tossed him into the front row of ringsiders. As they climbed back into the ring, Tarzan slugged Newman, grabbed him for a body slam and won the fall.

Bob "Bulldog" Wagner, Buffalo, N. Y. beat "Lucky" Simonovich of Hawaiian Islands, two out of three falls in a rough and tumble. Wagner after hammering Simonovich around the ring slugging his opponent across the back, used the back breaker to win in 14 minutes and 42 seconds. Simonovich turned tables and after jumping over Referee Feeback and using a flying drop kick knocked Wagner to the mat, then picked him up using the breaker and won the fall in 11 minutes and 31 seconds. The third fall went to Wagner in three minutes and 35 seconds using the breaker.

Ken Kenneth, Australia, beat Jay Steele, Des Moines, Ia., in the opening event with a body slam and a body smother It took Kenneth 10 minutes and four seconds, to win the fall.

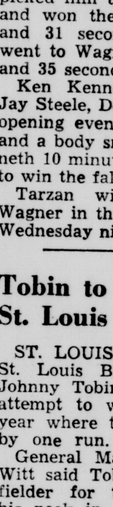

Tarzan will meet "Bulldog" Wagner in the feature event next Wednesday night.

Tobin to Coach St. Louis Browns

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17—(AP)—The St. Louis Browns have signed Johnny Tobin as a coach in an attempt to win ball games this year where they lost last season by one run.

General Manager Charley DeWitt said Tobin, a Brownie outfielder for ten years who hit his peak in 1921 and 1922, will concentrate on bunting during spring training.

"We finished in sixth place in 1948 by getting 59 victories DeWitt said. "But do you know that we lost 28 games by a single run when we couldn't put over a squeeze play or a sacrifice? A perfect bunt at the right time would have won a lot of those ball games."

H. C. France In Talk To Club On Money

Tells Knife And Fork Group About Our Economy

"Do you know anyone in Sedalia who can go along in Sedalia for eleven years and spend more money than they take in, and get away with it? That is what Uncle Sam has been doing for the past eleven years, "Harry C. France, one of the leading investment counselors in the western world said while addressing ninety-five Knife and Fork club members in Ambassador Room of the Bothwell hotel, Wednesday night in one of the most fiery talks ever delivered in the two year history of the club

Rev. Fr. Andrew J. Brunswick, president of the club gave a brief business talk and thanked the members for splendid cooperation of the club while serving as president. He said the installation of the new officers would take place at the next meeting, March 30.

The Rev. H. U. Campbell gave the invocation before a ham dinner was served.

The speaker was introduced by John Joe McGrath.

Aspects of Money

In his topic, "The Money Medley" the speaker discussed nearly all aspects of money and emphazied on the economic condition of the United States today.

"Money is a minor plot and the major plot has to do with economic forces that money has helped to build up," the speaker related. He went on to explain about money panics and the one faced in the United States in past years.

"Today we are living in the most signifiant economic period in the history of this country x x x money today has become a problem and a very serious economic one. We are confronted in this country with economic forces that threaten us x x x If we have a depression, we will have a change in the political form of government in this country" the speaker said.

"Nobody in this room will ever see the federal debt cleared. With the result of the war and depression we have an inheritance of 252 thousand million dollars that will be paid off by four or five generations, the speaker related.

"Money by itself will not bring prosperity. Money is a medium of exchange. The 28½ billion dollars in circulation is a threat to the economic life of America," the speaker said.

Inaugural Cost About $10,000

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—Gov. Forrest Smith's inauguration cost close to $10,000 according to a report to a joint Senate-House committee Wednesday.

Thus far the total is $9,878. Travel expenses of inaugural committee members still must be added, Senator Anthony M. Webbe (D) of St. Louis, the committee chairman, said.

Four years ago, when Gov. Phil M. Donnelly was inaugurated under wartime conditions, the total cost was $3,547. Webbe said this figure, however, did not include certain costs which were paid by other state departments.

Billed as the most elaborate in the state's history, Smith's inauguration costs included $3,002 for printing invitations, tickets and formal programs, $1,359 for flowers and lumber used in the decorations and $1,257 for transporting bands and military units.

The adjutant general's office spent $914 on telegrams to honorary colonels and others. Orchestra music and the sound system cost $822.

For Minimum Of $145 A Month

JEFFERSON CITY, Feb. 17—(AP)—A bill to set a minimum wage of $145 a month for all state employes won Senate committee approval Wednesday.

Introduced by Senator Harry Revercomb (D) of Shelbina, the bill would include all employes not covered by the state merit system. Revercomb said he thought the others ought to be somewhere near the merit system level of $147 a month

Lowest paid state workers now get as little as $80 a month, he said.

He estimated the increase would cost the state about $1,000,000 a year.

Also approved was Revercomb's bill to boost the pay of legislative employes from $5 to $8 a day.

Revercomb is chairman of the fees and salaries committee which approved the two bills unanimously.

The Arm Lends a Hand

What may be the answer to the phonograph record muddle is this new pick-up arm, which will play the standard records and new long-playing ones. Displayed in New York, the pick-up has twin sapphire points. One plays the standard 78-rpm records, the other both the 33⅓-rpm and 45-rpm discs. As the arm switches from one point to the other, the pressure on the record also changes.

Camera Club Held Meeting

The Sedalita Camera club held its regular meeting at the home of Glen McVey, 1111 West Seventh street, Tuesday evening.

Bill Padgett will deliver a lecture and demonstration on a photographic subject of his own choosing at the next meeting. The new print subject will be "Hands" with train pictures being continued another two weeks as an additional subject.

The advanced program of the club will also be outlined at the meeting, and lecture-demonstrations will be scheduled and respective speakers appointed.

U.S. Ink Blots Up Chateau

On a bridge that leads to the Chateau de Mesnil St. Denis, a villager contemplates the moat that he ball point pens crossed to turn the 17th century castle into a factory.

Mme. Raymond Fleury inspects containers the chateau workers have filled with ink from U. S.

MESNIL ST. DENIS, France—(NEA—Twentieth century American methods are turning out ball-point pens from the pastoral confines of a moated and crumbling 17th century chateau 30 miles from Paris.

Thirty-five villagers from Mesnil St. Denis work on the production line in what used to be the stables of a French count. They squirt purple ink from America into plastic ball-point fillers made in France, from eight to 12. From 12 to one, they enjoy their cheese and wine and their hot stew on sunny and moss-grown bridges below the chateau towers.

They sometimes try to imagine the splendor and the gaiety that reigned here centuries ago when ladies-in-waiting trailed bewigged mistresses through the gardens.

That was before the French revolution.

The chateau changed hands many times. Its last owner was the Norwegian government, which convicted the owner of the Chateau de Mesnil St. Denis for collaboration with the Nazis.

Offered at auction, the building was sighted by the villagers of Mesnil St. Denis as a possible new municipal building. Their money was on the line and the contract signed.

Milton Reynolds, ball-point impressario, was looking for plant space in France. His European manager, Theodore Bennahum, squeezed out the villagers with 20 million francs in cash. The villagers were far from pleased.

Today, however, there is joy in Mesnil St. Denis. The villagers are in on the ground floor for jobs.

Reynolds, for his part, intends to rebuild the chateau. He'll use the francs he makes from ball-point pens in France.

Hal Boyle Says

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK, Feb. 16—(AP)—Is man at heart a weak, forlorn, miserable, 'fraidy-cat creature?

Does he in his inmost soul fear women as the mouse dreads the cat's silent power? Is that why men don't live as long as women?

Well, that's one feminine angle to the question of why the ladies prove the more durable sex in the great game of living.

Recently I gave one man's views on why wives outlive their husbands — as insurance statistics show they do. The burden of my song was that the whole thing could be explained off as another example of the male's innate chivalry.

Of course, I may also have mentioned in passing — indeed I did mention it — that the average husband undergoes considerable extra wear and tear in his lifetime earning creature comforts for his lady fair. But I pointed out he was glad to do it.

Lady Takes Exceptions

But a lady in Seattle takes exception to this entire thesis. Violent exception, too. She says men don't last as long as women because they fret themselves to death trying to prove they are something they aren't.

"Why does man never stop insisting he is superior to all living things, including woman?" she asks. "Because he knows it is not true and hopes by much repetition to make it so, and it is his inferiority complex that needs bolstering.

"Almost never do you hear a woman say women are superior to men. Is that because women admit that men are superior? No. Indeed! For women actually believe they are superior.

Mask Their Strength

"But they realize that to rob men of their illusion would leave men feeling weak and inferior. Therefore, women hide their alert minds, mask their strength. Instead they hold up patterns of courage, honesty and endurance to man to keep him happy, and thus make him stronger, braver and more honest than he actually is."

The Seattle lady also says it is high time men cease this "war of nerves" against their superior —women. Then, she says, they will live longer.

"If men would stop using up their energy protesting their superiority, they could rest and enjoy life instead of fighting at every opportunity.

"Men fight women. They fight men. They fight children. They fight animals. They fight the weather. They fight the elements. They fight the earth to tear from it gold, coal, iron and other metals.

Terrific Struggle

"That is what kills off the men before their time — the terrific struggle to maintain a superiority they do not possess."

And another thing, says the lady from Seattle:

"Men insist that only men be in Congress and hold business positions. They insist upon doing every bit of work and attempt to be the masters of music, art, writing, mechanics and all manner of endeavor.

"They will not permit women to enter these fields because they fear the loss of their own hold on matters of importance. And in so doing they have to put forth such effort to maintain their false position that they kill themselves off."

Relax And Live Longer

And what's more, concludes the lady from Seattle:

"I would like to see men throw their bubble gum and atomic bombs into the waste basket, put up their guns and cannon, wash their faces (including their ears) stop their cops-and-robbers games between the nations, and go into the house, sit, rest — and admit they are children."

Relax, fellows, and live longer. You heard the lady. You know who's boss. Mama's gonna go out and tote home the bacon from now on. Papa's gonna play marbles again.

Kitten Hits the Bottle

Jean Brown, 10, of Rochester, N. Y., found Spooky sick and hungry in a ditch. She nursed the kitten back to health, and now she's given up her dolls for a real, live, bottle-drinking plaything. Spooky likes to be dressed in doll's clothing and to drink his milk from a doll's bottle.

Satisfaction in Each Portion

There's satisfaction in every portion of good barbecued spareribs—just ask your family the next time you serve them! They are a meal in themselves, either at home or at a picnic. A good accompaniment is baked potatoes—if you're outdoors bake them in the coals of your camp-fire.

Barbecued 'Ribs' Are Good Eating

Ad No. 20 of a series of articles on "Cooking The Modern Way" by Edalene Stohr, home economist and lecturer for the National Livestock and Meat Board.

A reputation for good barbecued spareribs has brought reknown to some of the finest restaurants in the country—and it can be your route to culinary success, too. There are mighty few people in this world who would turn down this favorite pork cut!

Actually, you cannot make spareribs too often because they fit into every kind of occasion—the family loves them, they are wonderful if you're planning to entertain and even if you decide to pick up your meal and carry it to the great outdoors to eat, spareribs go right along in fine style. Just pack them in several layers of newspaper if you want to eat them hot, or chill well in the refrigerator (they're just as good cold!)

When buying spareribs, select the meatiest ones you can find, then allow ¾ to 1 pound per person. (If you have ribs left-over they are good cold for between-meal snacks.) Have your meat dealer cut them into eating-sized portions, or at least crack" the ribs so you can cut them yourself.

Perfection in Spareribs

Perfectly barbecued spareribs depend on just two things; slow cooking and long cooking. If the ribs are cooked quickly they will lose their juiciness and if they are not completely cooked, the flavor will not be developed to the fullest. Be sure you cook them slowly and completely if you want that falling off the bone" tenderness and goodness.

If you'd like a bit 'different" touch with your ribs occasionally, cook them with a slice of onion and a slice of lemon perched a-top each serving portion. Another time add a slice of green pepper, or still another time three or four dill pickle slices.

Barbecued Spareribs Supreme

3 pounds spareribs, cut into servings
1 medium onion chopped
2 tablespoons butter, margarine or bacon drippings
2 tablespoons vinegar
2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 small bottle or 1 cup catsup
3 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce
1 tablespoon prepared mustard
1 cup water
½ cup chopped celery (optional)
Salt and pepper to season

Brown spareribs on all sides. Place fat in saucepan; add onion and brown. Add remaining ingredients and cook slowly until flavors are blended, about 15 minutes. Pour sauce over browned spareribs. Cover tightly and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F) 1½ to 2 hours or until done. Six servings.

Poles Study Meat Problem

WARSAW, Poland — (AP) — The Polish government plans to buy 1,125,000 hogs from owners of small and medium farms this year to increase the flow of meat supplies to city and town markets.

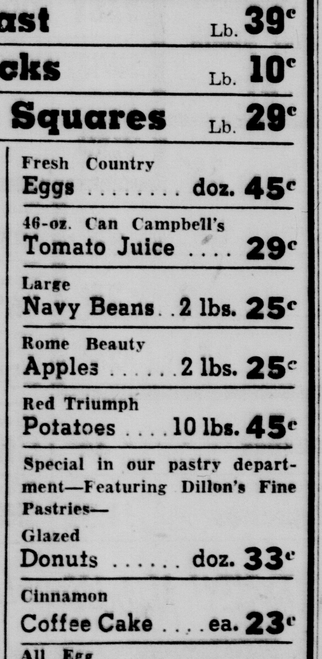

Poles for the last several weeks have been complaining about "meat shortages." The government says there is no shortage and contends the lack of supplies in some districts is due solely to "faulty distribution."

Nevertheless, Polish housewives still stand for hours in long queues from dawn until late morning to buy meats in Warsaw butcher shops.

The Bird For Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Pennsylvania growers predict they will raise 1,441,000 turkeys in 1949.

The state agriculture department reports that if the growers' plans are carried out, it means an autumn crop within 19,000 of the all-time record raised in 1945.

Major factors fostering increased production include a plentiful supply of feed and the strong demand for turkey before and during the holiday season.

A federal-state survey discloses there will be a 25 per cent increase in turkey growing nationally.

Washington's Birthday Cherry Jam Treat

Jelly, Cheese and Crackers . . . Tasty any time.

By Cecily Brownstone
Associated Press Food Editor

Cherry preserves will help make a festive snack for your family and friends on George Washington's birthday. If there are youngsters in your family they will adore cutting out a paper hatchet pattern that in turn can be used to shape the bread shapes for the snacks. Spread each bread hatchet with a layer of softened cream cheese, then with one of cherry jam. Another bread hatchet may be added in sandwich style. You'll like this easy to make small size recipe for the jam.

February Cherry Jam

Ingredients: 1 one pound package of quick frozen red sour pitted cherries, 2¼ cups sugar, 5 tablespoons powdered fruit pectin (mix contents of package thoroughly before measuring.)

Method: Thaw cherries as directed on package; then drain, reserving juice. Chop cherries fine. Measure cherries and juice and add enough water to make 2¼ cups. Place in a large saucepan. Measure sugar and set aside. Place saucepan holding fruit over high heat. Add powdered fruit pectin and stir until the mixture comes to a hard boil. Add sugar at once. Bring to a full rolling boil for 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat, skim, pour quickly into jelly glasses. Paraffin at once. Makes about 3 six-ounce glasses.

Another treat for a Washington Birthday party for youngsters is to top vanilla or custard pudding with the cherry preserves and then improvise drum-style containers, as shown in the photograph.

For an all-year round tea party a large wooden platter that will hold several kinds of jam, jelly or preserves and an assortment of crackers is attractive. Spread some of the crackers with cream cheese and leave some plain so that guests may take their choice.

"—NO MORE UPSET STOMACH"

Do you suffer heartburn after meals?...feel logy? ...uncomfortable? Then read this heartening letter from a woman who found her way to better digestion and better health:

"Before switching to POSTUM, I suffered both indigestion and nervousness... But now my nerves are quieted and my digestion much improved. No more upset stomach after drinking POSTUM!"

SCIENTIFIC FACTS: Both coffee and tea contain caffein, and caffein is a drug which in many persons tends to produce harmful stomach acidity, as well as nervousness and sleepless nights. So while many people can drink coffee or tea without ill-effect, others can't—and this may mean YOU!

MAKE THIS TEST: Give up coffee—give up tea—drink POSTUM exclusively for 30 days—and judge by results! Remember: POSTUM contains no caffein or other drug—nothing that can possibly cause indigestion, nervousness, sleeplessness! Ask your grocer today for INSTANT POSTUM—A Vigorous Drink made from Healthful Wheat and Bran. A Product of General Foods.
